DOUGLAS COUNTY BOARD OF)	THE DOUGLAS COUNTY BOARD OF
EQUALIZATION,)	EQUALIZATION

Appellee.)

The above-captioned case was called for a hearing on the merits of an appeal by Donald L. Andrews ("the Taxpayer") to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission ("the Commission"). The hearing was held in the Commission's Hearing Room on the sixth floor of the Nebraska State Office Building in the City of Lincoln, Lancaster County, Nebraska, on October 22, 2008, pursuant to an Order for Hearing and Notice of Hearing issued August 13, 2008. Commissioners Warnes and Salmon were present. Commissioner Warnes was the presiding hearing officer. Commissioner Wickersham was absent and Commissioner Hotz was excused from participation by the presiding hearing officer. The appeal was heard by a panel of three commissioners pursuant to 442 Neb. Admin. Code, ch. 4, §011 (10/07).

Donald L. Andrews was present at the hearing without legal counsel.

Thomas S. Barrett, a Deputy County Attorney for Douglas County, Nebraska, was present as legal counsel for the Douglas County Board of Equalization ("the County Board").

The Commission took statutory notice, received exhibits and heard testimony.

The Commission is required to state its final decision and order concerning an appeal, with findings of fact and conclusions of law, on the record or in writing. Neb. Rev. Stat. §77-5018 (Cum. Supp. 2006). The final decision and order of the Commission in this case is as follows.

I. ISSUES

The Taxpayer has asserted that taxable value of the subject property as of January 1, 2007, is not equalized with the taxable value of other real property. The issues on appeal related to that assertion are:

Whether the decision of the County Board determining the equalized taxable value of the subject property is unreasonable or arbitrary;

Whether the equalized taxable value of the subject property was determined by the County Board in a manner and an amount that is uniform and proportionate as required by Nebraska's Constitution in Article VIII §1; and

The equalized taxable value of the subject property on January 1, 2007.

II. FINDINGS OF FACT

The Commission finds and determines that:

1. The Taxpayer has a sufficient interest in the outcome of the above captioned appeal to maintain the appeal.
2. The parcel of real property to which this appeal pertains ("the Subject Property") is described in the table below.
3. Actual value of the subject property placed on the assessment roll as of January 1, 2007, ("the assessment date") by the Douglas County Assessor, value as proposed in a timely protest, and actual value as determined by the County Board is shown in the following table:

Case No. 07R-062

Description: SKYLARK HEIGHTS ADD LOT 58 BLOCK IRREG, Douglas County, Nebraska.

	Assessor Notice Value	Taxpayer Protest Value	Board Determined Value
Land	$32,000.00	Included in Total	$32,000.00
Improvement	$191,600.00	Included in Total	$175,000.00
Total	$223,600.00	$195,000.00	$207,000.00

4. An appeal of the County Board's decision was filed with the Commission.
5. The County Board was served with a Notice in Lieu of Summons and duly answered that Notice.
6. An Order for Hearing and Notice of Hearing issued on August 13, 2008, set a hearing of the appeal for October 22, 2008, at 9:00 a.m. CDST.
7. An Affidavit of Service which appears in the records of the Commission establishes that a copy of the Order for Hearing and Notice of Hearing was served on all parties.
8. Actual value of the subject property as of the assessment date for the tax year 2007 is:

Case No. 07R-062

Land value $32,000.00

Improvement value $175,000.00

Total value $207,000.00

III. APPLICABLE LAW

1. Subject matter jurisdiction of the Commission in this appeal is over all questions necessary to determine taxable value. Neb. Rev. Stat. §77-5016(7) (Supp. 2007).
2. “Actual value is the most probable price expressed in terms of money that a property will bring if exposed for sale in the open market, or in an arm’s length transaction, between a willing buyer and a willing seller, both of whom are knowledgeable concerning all the uses to which the real property is adapted and for which the real property is capable of being used. In analyzing the uses and restrictions applicable to real property the analysis shall include a full description of the physical characteristics of the real property and an identification of the property rights valued.” Neb. Rev. Stat. §77-112 (Reissue 2003).
3. Actual value may be determined using professionally accepted mass appraisal methods, including, but not limited to, the (1) sales comparison approach using the guidelines in section 77-1371, (2) income approach, and (3) cost approach. Neb. Rev. Stat. §77-112 (Reissue 2003).
4. “Actual value, market value, and fair market value mean exactly the same thing.”
Omaha Country Club v. Douglas County Board of Equalization, et al., 11 Neb.App. 171, 180, 645 N.W.2d 821, 829 (2002).
5. Taxable value is the percentage of actual value subject to taxation as directed by section 77-201 of Nebraska Statutes and has the same meaning as assessed value. Neb. Rev. Stat. §77-131 (Reissue 2003).

6. All taxable real property, with the exception of agricultural land and horticultural land, shall be valued at actual value for purposes of taxation. Neb. Rev. Stat. §77-201(1) (Cum. Supp. 2006).
7. “Taxes shall be levied by valuation uniformly and proportionately upon all real property and franchises as defined by the Legislature except as otherwise provided in or permitted by this Constitution.” Neb. Const., Art. VIII, §1.
8. Equalization to obtain proportionate valuation requires a comparison of the ratio of assessed to actual value for the subject property and comparable property. Cabela's Inc. v. Cheyenne County Bd. of Equalization, 8 Neb.App. 582, 597 N.W.2d 623 (1999).
9. Uniformity requires that whatever methods are used to determine actual or taxable value for various classifications of real property that the results be correlated to show uniformity. Banner County v. State Board of Equalization, 226 Neb. 236, 411 N.W.2d 35 (1987).
10. Taxpayers are entitled to have their property assessed uniformly and proportionately, even though the result may be that it is assessed at less than the actual value. Equitable Life v. Lincoln County Bd. of Equal., 229 Neb. 60, 425 N.W.2d 320 (1988); Fremont Plaza v. Dodge County Bd. of Equal., 225 Neb. 303, 405 N.W.2d 555 (1987).
11. The constitutional requirement of uniformity in taxation extends to both rate and valuation. First Nat. Bank & Trust Co. v. County of Lancaster, 177 Neb. 390, 128 N.W.2d 820 (1964).
12. In the evaluation of real property for tax purposes, where buildings and improvements are taxable as a part of the real estate, the critical issue is the actual value of the entire property, not the proportion of that value which is allocated to the land or to the buildings and improvements by the appraiser. Bumgarner v. Valley County, 208 Neb. 361, 303 N.W.2d 307 (1981).

13. If taxable values are to be equalized it is necessary for a Taxpayer to establish by clear and convincing evidence that valuation placed on his or her property when compared with valuations placed on similar property is grossly excessive and is the result of systematic will or failure of a plain legal duty, and not mere error of judgement. There must be something more, something which in effect amounts to an intentional violation of the essential principle of practical uniformity. Newman v. County of Dawson, 167 Neb. 666, 94 N.W.2d 47 (1959).
14. A presumption exists that the County Board has faithfully performed its duties and has acted on competent evidence. City of York v. York County Bd. Of Equalization, 266 Neb. 297, 64 N.W.2d 445 (2003).
15. The presumption in favor of the county board may be classified as a principle of procedure involving the burden of proof, namely, a taxpayer has the burden to prove that action by a board of equalization fixing or determining valuation of real estate for tax purposes is unauthorized by or contrary to constitutional or statutory provisions governing taxation. Gordman Properties Company v. Board of Equalization of Hall County, 225 Neb. 169, 403 N.W.2d 366 (1987).
16. The presumption disappears if there is competent evidence to the contrary. Id.

17. The order, decision, determination, or action appealed from shall be affirmed unless evidence is adduced establishing that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary. Neb. Rev. Stat. §77-5016 (8) (Cum. Supp. 2006).
18. Proof that the order, decision, determination, or action was unreasonable or arbitrary must be made by clear and convincing evidence. See, e.g. Omaha Country Club v. Douglas Cty. Bd. of Equal., 11 Neb.App. 171, 645 N.W.2d 821 (2002).
19. "Clear and convincing evidence means and is that amount of evidence which produces in the trier of fact a firm belief or conviction about the existence of a fact to be proved." Castellano v. Bitkower, 216 Neb. 806, 812, 346 N.W.2d 249, 253 (1984).
20. A decision is "arbitrary" when it is made in disregard of the facts and circumstances and without some basis which could lead a reasonable person to the same conclusion. Phelps Cty. Bd. of Equal. v. Graf, 258 Neb 810, 606 N.W.2d 736 (2000).
21. A decision is unreasonable only if the evidence presented leaves no room for differences of opinion among reasonable minds. Pittman v. Sarpy Cty. Bd. of Equal., 258 Neb 390, 603 N.W.2d 447 (1999).
22. "An owner who is familiar with his property and knows its worth is permitted to testify as to its value." U. S. Ecology v. Boyd County Bd. Of Equalization, 256 Neb. 7, 16, 588 N.W.2d 575, 581 (1999).
23. The County Board need not put on any evidence to support its valuation of the property at issue unless the taxpayer establishes the Board's valuation was unreasonable or arbitrary. Bottorf v. Clay County Bd. of Equalization, 7 Neb.App. 162, 580 N.W.2d 561 (1998).

24. A Taxpayer, who only produced evidence that was aimed at discrediting valuation methods utilized by the county assessor, failed to meet burden of proving that value of property was not fairly and proportionately equalized or that valuation placed upon property for tax purposes was unreasonable or arbitrary. Beynon v. Board of Equalization of Lancaster County, 213 Neb. 488, 329 N.W.2d 857 (1983).
25. A Taxpayer must introduce competent evidence of actual value of the subject property in order to successfully claim that the subject property is overvalued. Cf. Lincoln Tel. and Tel. Co. v. County Bd. Of Equalization of York County, 209 Neb. 465, 308 N.W.2d 515 (1981); Arenson v. Cedar County, 212 Neb. 62, 321 N.W.2d 427 (1982) (determination of equalized values); and Josten-Wilbert Vault Co. v. Board of Equalization for Buffalo County, 179 Neb. 415, 138 N.W.2d 641 (1965) (determination of actual value).

IV. ANALYSIS

The subject property is an improved residential parcel with a house built in 1960 that has 1660 square feet of finished living area and has a rating of average for condition and quality.

(E6:1)

The Taxpayer has alleged that taxable value of the subject property as of January 1, 2007, is not equalized with the taxable value of other real property. The Taxpayer has provided evidence of five parcels which he alleges their assessed values are not equalized with the subject property. These five parcels are itemized in Exhibit 4 page one. The location of these five parcels and the subject property (lot 58) are shown on Exhibit 4 page two. The Taxpayer alleges that the five parcels are comparable to the subject property.

That when using “comparables” to determine value, similarities and differences between the subject property and the comparables must be recognized. Property Assessment Valuation, 2nd Ed., 1996, p.103. Most adjustments are for physical characteristics. Property Assessment Valuation, 2nd Ed., 1996, p.105. “Financing terms, market conditions, location, and physical characteristics are items that must be considered when making adjustments . . .” Property Assessment Valuation, 2nd Ed., 1996, p. 98.

“Comparable properties” share similar quality, architectural attractiveness (style), age, size, amenities, functional utility, and physical condition. Property Assessment Valuation, 2nd Ed., International Association of Assessing Officers, 1996, p. 98.

Taxpayer's Exhibit 4 page one itemizes and puts into a table many of the important physical characteristics for each of the five parcels alleged to be comparable to the subject property; however, there are many more features and attributes of an improved parcel that must be taken into account in making comparisons to the subject property. The Taxpayer did not provide as evidence the property record file for the properties he is alleging are comparable to the subject property in accordance with item 13 of the Commission's Order for hearing. Instead, the Taxpayer has provided as evidence "screen shots" from the Douglas County Assessor's website which said "screen shots" do not show all of the attributes of the parcels. This deficiency makes a complete comparison by the Commission not possible. An example of this deficiency is shown when the Commission compares the "screen shots" of the subject property, Exhibit 4 page five, to the property record file provided by the County's Exhibit 6 pages 1 to 5. Exhibit 6 page four of the property record file shows each of the attributes of the subject property and its respective value.

However, despite this deficiency in the evidence, a comparison of the subject property to the alleged comparables has been made by the Commission using the "screen shots" of the alleged comparable properties to the subject property provided by the Taxpayer. A table has been prepared by the Commission with a summary of its review of the five parcels and the subject property. Differences between the subject property and the Taxpayer's alleged comparables are noted. Only one additional variable has been singled out, that being the size of the total basement square footage and the finished square footage of the basement. The Commission finds that this one variable accounts for a portion of the differences between the subject property and the alleged comparables.

Address	Exhibit Number	Total Basement	Finished Basement
Subject Property Exhibit #
1229 Skylark Dr.	E6:1	1660	1200
Comp #1
11403 Pierce St.	E4:7	1675	None
Comp #2
1206 Skylark Dr.	E4:10	806	None
Comp #3
11526 Hickory St.	E4:12	1600	700
Comp #4
1645 Pine Rd.	E4:15	1648	None
Comp #5
11514 Pierce	E4:17	1632	900

From this table the Commission finds that only comparables #3 and #5 are most comparable on the single issue of finished basement square footage. The subject property is assessed for 2007 at $207,000, comparable #3 is assessed for 2007 at $175,000 and comparable #5 is assessed for 2007 at $187,000. The subject property has greater square footage of finished basement than comparables #3 and #5 which appears to account for a difference. Commission notes from its review of Exhibit 6 page four is that the County is valuing the finished basement area at $22 per square foot. Exhibits 3 and 5 vary in square footage from the subject property by 500 square foot and 300 square foot respectively for a valuation difference of $11,000 and $6,600.

The subject property has three baths, Exhibit 6 page four, while the comparables #3 and #5 have 2.5 and 1.5 baths respectively. (E4:12 & E4:17).

The Commission finds that the Taxpayers alleged comparables are not comparable to the subject property without important adjustments made to valuations due to the differences in physical characteristics.

A second major defect in the evidence provided by the Taxpayer is that none of the comparisons were from sales of comparable properties. The Taxpayer has instead chosen to use for comparison the assessed valuation of the alleged comparables.

The Taxpayer contends that the actual or fair market value of the subject property should be determined based on the taxable or “assessed” value per square foot of other parcels. A Taxpayer wishing to use taxable “assessed” values to prove actual or fair market value must show that the approach used is a professionally approved mass or fee appraisal approach and demonstrate application of the approach.

A determination of actual value may be made for mass appraisal and assessment purposes by using approaches identified in Nebraska Statutes. Neb. Rev. Stat. §77-112 (Reissue 2003). The approaches identified are the sales comparison approach, the income approach, the cost approach and other professionally accepted mass appraisal methods. Id. Comparison of assessed values is not identified in the Nebraska Statutes as an accepted approach for a determination of actual value for purposes of mass appraisal. Id. Because the method is not identified in statute, proof of its professional acceptance as an accepted appraisal approach would have to be produced. Id. No evidence has been presented to the Commission that comparison of assessed values is a professionally accepted mass or fee appraisal approach.

The Taxpayer in this case asks the Commission to presume that the taxable “assessed” value of each offered comparable is equal to its actual value. A presumption can arise that an assessor properly determined taxable “assessed” value. Woods v. Lincoln Gas and Electric Co., 74 Neb. 526, 527 (1905), Brown v. Douglas County, 98 Neb. 299, 303 (1915), Gamboni v. County of Otoe, 159 Neb. 417, 431, 67 N.W.2d 489, 499 (1954), Ahern v. Board of Equalization, 160 Neb. 709, 711, 71 N.W.2d 307, 309 (1955). A presumption can also arise that a County Board’s determination of taxable “assessed” value is correct. Constructor's Inc. v. Cass Cty. Bd. of Equal., 258 Neb. 866, 606 N.W.2d 786 (2000). A presumption is not, however, evidence of correctness in and of itself but may be classified as a principle of procedure involving the burden of proof. See, Gordman Properties Company v. Board of Equalization of Hall County, 225 Neb. 169, 403 N.W.2d 366 (1987).

The weight of authority is that assessed value is not in and of itself direct evidence of actual value. See, Lienemann v. City of Omaha, 191 Neb. 442, 215 N.W.2d 893 (1974). If however the “taxable ‘assessed’ value comparison approach” was shown to be a professionally accepted approach for determination of actual value, and that the taxable “assessed value of the proposed comparables was equal to actual value, further analysis would be required. Techniques for use of the approach would have to be developed. Techniques used in the sales comparison approach are instructive. In the sales comparison approach, a sale price is an indication of actual value for a sold property but must be adjusted to account for differences between properties to become an indicator of actual value for another property. The Appraisal of Real Estate, Twelfth Edition, Appraisal Institute, Chs 17, 18, 19, (2001). An analysis of differences and adjustments to the taxable “assessed” value of comparison properties would be necessary to obtain an indication of actual value for a subject property. See, DeBruce Grain v. Otoe County Board of Equalization, 7 Neb.App. 688, 584 N.W.2d 837, (1998). No adjustments or analysis of adjustments necessary to compensate for differences between the subject property and the taxable “assessed” values of other parcels was presented.

The Commission finds that the Taxpayer has not rebutted by competent evidence the presumption that the County Board of Equalization faithfully performed its duties or that it did not have sufficient competent evidence in making its determination of assessed valuation of the subject property for 2007. Despite this fact, the Commission has reviewed all of the evidence and finds that the Taxpayer did not provide clear and convincing evidence that the County Board of Equalization was arbitrary or unreasonable in making its determination of assessed valuation for 2007 or that taxable value of the subject property as of January 1, 2007, is not equalized with the taxable value of other real property. In addition, the Commission finds from its review of the reasonableness of the evidence that the assessed valuation determined by the Douglas County Board of Equalization for the subject property for 2007 is correct. The appeal of the Taxpayer is denied.

V.
CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Commission has subject matter jurisdiction in this appeal.
2. The Commission has jurisdiction over the parties to this appeal.
3. The Taxpayer has not produced competent evidence that the County Board failed to faithfully perform its official duties and to act on sufficient competent evidence to justify its actions.
4. The Taxpayer has not adduced sufficient, clear and convincing evidence that the decision of the County Board is unreasonable or arbitrary and the decision of the County Board should be affirmed.

VI.
ORDER

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The decision of the County Board determining actual value of the subject property as of the assessment date, January 1, 2007, is affirmed.
2. Actual value, for the tax year 2007, of the subject property is:

Case No. 07R-062

Land value	$32,000.00
Improvement value	$175,000.00
Total value	$207,000.00. .

3. This decision, if no appeal is timely filed, shall be certified to the Douglas County Treasurer, and the Douglas County Assessor, pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. §77-5018 (Cum. Supp. 2006).
4. Any request for relief, by any party, which is not specifically provided for by this order is denied.
5. Each party is to bear its own costs in this proceeding.
6. This decision shall only be applicable to tax year 2007.
7. This order is effective for purposes of appeal on November 3, 2008.

Signed and Sealed. November 3, 2008.
